HOLD MAN HERE FOR SLAYING PART GIRL

Negro Who Robbed Hospital Here
Said to Answer Description of Legion Slayer.

The negro who gave his name as John Henry, after he had shot at two men and committed four robberies, the Atlanta police Friday expressed the belief that they have the man who shot Ida Leeson, an art student, in Chicago, and have solved a mystery which has puzzled the police in this city since it was committed in August.

The negro, who was arrested as the result of a clever ruse by Miss Nellie Ashburn, a nurse whose room in the Georgia Hospital Hospital dormitory he had entered, talked with the description of the man hunted for the murder of Mrs. Leeson in the North-west. The negro admitted to Chief of Detectives Landon that he was in Chicago at the time the art student was murdered. He also stated that he had heard of how she was murdered, but declared that his knowledge came only through reading newspapers.

Mrs. Leeson's mutilated body was found in a lonely matrix in the outskirts of Chicago after she had left a note in answer to a mysterious letter asking her to come. Persons later found the body in a copper-colored bag, lying suspiciously in the vicinity of where the young woman was murdered. They stated that she had been shot and severely wounded, and that she had been shot and severely wounded.

Tears 'X-Ray' Gown Off Wife on Street; Court Upholds Him

MOBILE, Oct. 17.—Judge David H. Edgerton in Police Court today ruled that a man had a right to tear off his wife's X-ray gown in the street. The man, who was charged with indecent exposure, was found guilty, and the court upheld his defense.

C. W. McClure, Kronland Passenger, Wonders at Conduct of Carmania.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—C. W. McClure, prominent Atlanta merchant, head of the McClure five and ten cent enterprise, and a leader in the Progressive party in the South, told a graphic story of the Volturro disaster on his arrival in New York aboard the Kronland, which saved him from the ill-fated vessel.

SPARTAN CITIZENS ATTACK FRANK TRIAL JUROR

Declare Henkle's Statement That He Made Alleged Remarks After Trial Is Wrong.

Another shot was fired Friday at A. H. Henkle, one of the Frank jurors accused of bias and prejudice. The Frank attack came from Spartan citizens who were aroused to indignation by the statement of Henkle that he made the remarks they credited to him since and not before the trial. They denied Henkle's declaration in a communication forwarded Wednesday to Frank's attorneys, and asserted they had not seen Henkle since the trial.

Present Employee Corroborates Charges by Hawthorne of the Mistreatment of Convicts.

As shocking as was the revelation of alleged conditions in the Atlanta Federal prison made by Julian Hawthorne when the doors opened to let him free, they were corroborated by the testimony of a convict who was in the prison for years and who hopes to work there many more if the authorities do not succeed in learning his identity.

Guard SCORCHES 2 CONVICTS AS BALLOON EXPLODES

While the floodgates of criticism have been opened upon the warden by the sensational story of Hawthorne and his companion, Dr. W. J. Morton, Meyer has not been without his staunch friends and defenders. J. P. Mathieson, musical director at the prison two and a half years, told the warden Friday that there was nothing to the charges. A number of former convicts also have put in a good word for the warden and his aides and have scouted the story that the prisoners are mistreated.

SULZER RECOVERED FROM OFFICE, CONSIDERS OFFER OF GRATUITA RATES

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 17.—William Sulzer was removed formally from the office of Governor of New York at 11:50 o'clock today by the votes of more than two-thirds of the high court of impeachment which consisted of his father, a public record, of perjury and of attempting to induce another to commit perjury.

The vote was 43 to 12. Chief Justice Cullen and Senator Wende did not vote. There was bitter denunciation of the governor in the closing hours, when the court proceeded to discontinue articles 5, 7 and 8. Discharge was granted upon the head of the convicted official, and in the discharging of Sulzer even Chief Justice Cullen, who had steadily voted to acquit him, joined with a scathing comment upon the dishonorable practice of the Governor.

At the time of the actual judgment Martin H. Glynn became Governor by virtue of succession from the office of Lieutenant Governor, and Robert G. Wagner, President of the Senate, became Lieutenant Governor. Glynn formally was sworn in as the forty-third governor of the State of New York this afternoon by Chief Justice Cullen, of the Court of Appeals.

"This is not an occasion for exultation. I have no such feeling," said Governor Glynn. "To me it is an occasion of solemnity mixed with sadness. I am charged with the duties of Governor, not through any act or badge of office, but because the law which I am sworn to uphold imposes the obligation upon me under the distressing circumstances of the situation that have arisen."

Speculation as to what revelations of any Sulzer will make when out of office took the place of the impeachment in the minds of the political workers.

Further Action Talked. Purely collateral was other speculation as to whether or not an attempt would be made to bring criminal prosecution against Sulzer.

The conviction on the charge of perjury left an indelible offense fully marked by the court of last resort and made the way easy for indictment if one were to be pressed.

The court voted unanimously not to depose the Governor from future office of trust.

The indication was that no further action would be taken against the Governor and three assistants and charges against Tammany workers as contemners of a writ of certiorari.

The court voted first day on article 5, which charged him with having prevented Frederick L. Caldwell from testifying. The unanimous vote was not guilty.

Then article 6 was read and "not guilty" voted in short order. This morning the court proceeded to consider the charge of perjury and the charge of attempting to induce another to commit perjury.

The court voted first day on article 7, which charged him with having prevented Frederick L. Caldwell from testifying. The unanimous vote was not guilty.

Then article 8 was read and "not guilty" voted in short order. This morning the court proceeded to consider the charge of perjury and the charge of attempting to induce another to commit perjury.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES DISAPPEAR

Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses of Croxone.

If you are bothered with backache, rheumatism, bladder or urinary disorders to contend with, or suffer with any other of the many ailments that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon.

It is a positive fact that Croxone promptly overcomes such diseases. It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped-up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out the poisons. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing from weak kidneys and back the delicate lining of the bladder.

More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate, long-standing cases.

You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package contains a bottle of Croxone and a booklet authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time.

WHERE SUPFRAGETTES HAVE EVERYTHING THEIR HEARTS DESIRE.—In this surprising article Mrs. Nank Komshay, the first Thetan woman to visit America, tells how she fled from her native land because she found life unbearable in a country where women have ruled the men for more than 600 years, do all the proposing and send their husbands to monasteries whenever they tire of them. Read about it in next Sunday's American.

'Backless' Vests Now Fashion Fad

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A waistcoat without a back, a "backless" vest on the market, which, he says, has several advantages over the ordinary men's waistcoat.

These vests are said to be unusually cool and comfortable in warm weather, and, in addition, can be adjusted to various sizes. All that is necessary is to draw in or let out the strap at the back of the waist. This strap and the mechanism, mounted across the shoulders, are the only attachments that hold the front and sides together.

FORMER PRISONER TELLS MORE OF U. S. PRISON

Declares Charges of Conditions by Hawthorne and Morton Are Not Exaggerated.

not offered to talk for he is still within the jurisdiction of the officers of the institution," said Rich. "Then, he was not in a position to really observe that the conditions were being stated as he was a cook. He was fed plenty, and the food cooked by him was appetizing. The objection line in the small amount served to each convict."

"There is a negro engineer at the prison now at a wage of $100 per month who has white convicts working under him, a negro cook at $100 a year has white men under him. A negro took my place there as foreman of the blacksmith shop. He has a large number of white prisoners under him."

"One illustration of the way the convicts are handled was shown in the detention of a convict barber. The barber had shaved Warren Moore during the morning, and later in the day, having returned to his cell, he had shaved himself. He was then taken to the barber shop, where the warden so much that he ordered the convict to be shaved. The barber, made him take off his white coat and dress stripped on."

"There were any number of petty little things like this which, taken together, made life extremely miserable for the convicts. The charges that the 'house is not a true' prison which carry the rest for the building peak right by it. I built the iron doors of the two cells, and there is no way for air to enter."

How Giant Was Disciplined.
"I remember one prisoner, Sam Moore, a devoted life prisoner, who was kept in the hole for two weeks. Some of the convicts, and guards thought the man was slightly crazy. He was often called upon to clean him in the hole, and was constantly breaking the chains. Strang man as he was, I have seen him come out of the hole so weakened he could scarcely move."

Asked why he left the employ of the government, Rich said that promises of increase in pay had not been forthcoming to him, and that the experience had developed between him and the officials."

"I resigned, but I suppose I lost them to it," he remarked. "My reason for volunteering this statement is to bring the public into the knowledge of the conditions, and if the guards and other paid employees of the prison are guaranteed protection of their positions, they will tell facts which will startle the nation."

Former Prison Kitchen Worker Tells of Food.

Further corroboration of the recent attacks made upon the manner of the administration of the Federal prison by Julian Hawthorne and Dr. W. J. Morton was given Friday by another former inmate of the institution.

The man declared that he had been imprisoned for a year, part of the time being with Hawthorne and Morton were there. He said that he had worked in the kitchen. Being at present employed at Atlanta, he desired that his identity be withheld.

"When Dr. Morton said that Warren Moore was literally starved to death, he told no more than was true," the ex-convict declared. "I know, because I worked in the kitchen and saw what these men eat on their plates each week."

Laughed at His Protest.
"When I was first taken there, I presented one day to the chief steward, at the small portion that was being served. 'What?' 'Why, man, I said, 'that meat wouldn't keep a cat alive.' 'You're kidding,' he replied. 'Well, I can't help it. I don't matter to me anyway whether those prisoners eat anything or not.'"

"Portions of boiled meat are supposed to weigh six or seven ounces, but from my own observation the majority of them never weigh more than three. A man's portion of meat consists of one spoonful. There is coffee that is so bitter that no man can drink it."

"Men, full grown and healthy, can not live on such scanty fare when they eat once and do hard labor throughout the day. It has been the brag of the institution that they have baseball games and music. But when you enjoy such things when their stomachs are craving food."

"Let each man in the prison be questioned privately by a board of men connected with the prison. Let him be free to tell of the horrors of this place, and the result will be the revelation of one of the most outrageous examples of inhumanity which ever was permitted to exist under government supervision."

Warden Defended by Christian Endeavors.

Resolutions strongly defending Warden W. H. Moore, of the Atlanta Federal Prison, and declaring that the charges made by Julian Hawthorne and Dr. W. J. Morton have no foundation in fact, have been unanimously adopted by the Atlanta Local Union of Christian Endeavors.

"Some of the resolutions have been forwarded to Warden Moore and to Attorney General McReynolds."

INDIAN PRINCE STUDIES INDUSTRIES OF SOUTH

PRINCE GHULANI ALI MAHAMADI

Hampered in Work for Imperial Government by Being Mistaken for Negro Here.

for Negro Here.

Prince Ghulani Ali Mahamadi has just left Atlanta with a feeling of loneliness and heavy heart—a stranger in the Southern hospitality of which he had heard so much in England. The feelings of Prince Mahamadi were injured and his prestige and dignity unimpaired here, will be kept at low tide as long as he is in the South, he says.

An official of the Imperial Government of India, Prince Mahamadi came to America as a scholar of the Government of India, Technical School from Calcutta, to study the way the power classes are handled and to investigate the industries of the Southern States. He is doing this work with a view to establishing such industries in India.

"In spite of the difficulties I have experienced in my two days in the South, on account of my rather dark complexion," said Prince Mahamadi in perfect English and smiling, "I am greatly impressed and, indeed, with the easy manner in which you handle the race question."

"I must tell you of some of my troubles, as you are the first white man who seemed willing to talk with me."

"When I arrived from Calcutta I went to a leading hotel. As I stepped in front of the steps he told me to take off my turban. I complied with his request and a few minutes later I found myself in the hands of a man who arranged my room for me."

"Next thing I saw or heard was that I was 'kidding' for I have no power to make. Wednesday when I went out for dinner I went into a hotel. The waiter looked at me and was just opening his mouth to tell me that I would have to leave you tonight as we have no room for you. He was so much impressed, but let me out my dinner. He was more than thankful."

"I can identify him. He is a man of the South, and I am glad to be of any assistance to him."

"My father is the only child that was ever in the United States. He is a negro, and I looked at him with a great deal of interest. He is a very handsome man, and I am glad to be of any assistance to him."

CHURCH ROBBER IS FIANCE OF RICH WIDOW

Dashing Young Thief Won Heart of $30,000 Heiress by Correspondence.

Investigation Saturday by Chief of Detectives Landford into the career of Charles Stewart Melvin, the dapper young man from New York and Milwaukee who confessed that he robbed two Atlanta churches because "he was so fond of it and needed the money," brought forth information that he was planning to wed a "23-year-old" at the time of his arrest.

Chief Landford believes Melvin carried away by his fiancée, which is to be Miss Frances Melvin, through which the marriage was being arranged. Melvin, who has been in Atlanta only a week and was stopping at No. 15, Houston street, some time ago said that he had been formally introduced to the wealthy widow by Chief Landford, but the letters indicate that she is near San Francisco.

One letter written by Melvin, which he had been unable to mail because of his arrest, explained that he was ready and anxious to marry at once. The description of the beauty and talents of the dashing young widow, with the guaranteed bonus of the $30,000 fortune, had appealed strongly to Melvin and decided his future.

In writing for a wife Melvin had required that she be young and pretty, not more than 20 years of age and that she have money. He described himself as "young and good looking," and said he was satisfied he would make a good husband. According to the correspondence, the widow immediately capitulated.

Whether the arrest of young Melvin will break up the romantic marriage remains to be seen. There will, at least, be a temporary postponement, said Chief Landford.

Melvin is in a power cell in default of bond of $100, fixed Friday afternoon by Recorder Broyles. Melvin frankly admits that he stole electric fans and lamps from the Baptist Tabernacle, the First Methodist Church, the First Presbyterian Church, the Second Baptist Church and the Sacred Heart Church.

The Original Mitchell Engineer

Again at the head of the Mitchell-Lewis Motor Company—a matchless line for 1914

The Mitchell 1914 Line is being produced by Engineer John W. Bates, the man who created the Mitchell car, and the famous Mitchell Baby Six. After a year's rest he returns to Racine to place the Mitchell in a stronger position than it has ever occupied.

The Mitchell-Lewis Motor Company, with unlimited capital at its command, has surrounded Mr. Bates with the best facilities and the finest factory that it is possible to build. It will back the car with the most liberal Service-Policy for car owners that the business mind can conceive.

Eighty years of faithful service to the American public is the Company's Guarantee. This Means for the Mitchell Car for 1914

Quality—Efficiency—Long Life

The Mitchell Little Six is the most logical value on the market. It is a six-cylinder car of antiseptic design. It has fifty horse power, 132 inch wheel-base, five passenger capacity. It has a long, low, rakish streamline body, luxuriously upholstered, is equipped with electric self-starter and generator, electric lights and all modern conveniences, sells for the reasonable price of $1,895

The Mitchell Big Six is very much the same design as the Little Six. It has sixty horse power, 144 inch wheel-base and seats seven passengers. It has long time and the same splendid finish throughout as the Little Six, likewise the $2,350

The Mitchell Four has 120 inch wheel-base, forty horse power and seats five passengers. It is a splendid family car for little money. It is equipped precisely the same as $1,595

No matter which one of the Mitchell cars you select, you will make an investment. You have Bates' word for it. You will get the service that lies behind it. We are going to make you like the car, like us and like the agent you deal with. In all respects this is to be a Mitchell year and you will love

MRS. BARTON FIGHTS OFF FRUSTRATED COYER FOR ALIENATION

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Isabella Barton, who is being sued for custody of her 10-year-old son, is fighting off a determined effort by her husband to alienate the child from her. The husband, who is a well-known Chicagoan, is suing for custody of the child, who is being raised in the home of Mrs. Barton in San Francisco. The husband, who is a well-known Chicagoan, is suing for custody of the child, who is being raised in the home of Mrs. Barton in San Francisco.

From the statements of John M. Rankin, a lawyer representing Coyer, it appears that that alienated husband filed his suit in a misapprehension. "Mr. Coyer has been in Atlanta awaiting word of the arrival of his wife in New York, where he was to meet her," said Rankin. "It appears she was on her way to New York with her mother and a maid. They stopped off at Buffalo to visit relatives. He heard a report that her mother had persuaded her to turn back to go to San Francisco and not see him. Hence the suit. If a reconciliation is made, then the suit will be dismissed."

QUICK MIND OF BABY SAVES HER FROM CAR

GAYNELL VENABLE.

Little Gaynell Venable Leaps on Step of Machine When Trolley Imperils Her.

Little Gaynell Venable was playing on the street in front of her home, 242 Central avenue, between the sidewalk and the car tracks, when a trolley came. She was less than a foot of space between the rails and the step of the auto.

Playing around the step of the auto on the side next to the tracks, little Gaynell did not hear an approaching car until it was upon her. Her little mind worked fast, for as the car could not get across the tracks before the car reached her, she jumped on to the step of the auto.

The step of the car just grazed her, leaving her safe. She was neither frightened nor injured. Passengers on the car who saw the little one in front, thought she had been killed.

ATLANTAN, EYE-WITNESS TO VOLTRINO DISASTER, TELLS THRILLING STORY

and returned with difficulty. An hour later the sea having calmed slightly, three more lifeboats were launched, and these succeeded in reaching the Volturno, but the passengers refused to jump the boats, however, returned after midnight with thirteen who had been in the water for some time. The Krouland was most skillfully maneuvered.

It was the judgment of Captain Krouland and the chief engineer that the sea would quiet toward morning and that the Volturno could hold out. At 5 o'clock the Krouland caused two lifeboats to be lowered. There were in command of the second and fourth officers. The men reached the Volturno, and in a short time brought aboard the Krouland 32 more passengers, members of the crew and officers. Sudden and unexpected the Krouland struck to their ports and the Krouland arrived.

The work of the Krouland's crew was magnificent. They were because one and all, and never for a moment. Bunched in their duties. "I have never seen a higher sea running than the one that was taking the Krouland to the Volturno. But that sea made no difference to the Krouland master and crew. When the Krouland was struck to her starboard, the Krouland without delay he called for volunteers and every member of the crew responded from the first, offering to the cabin boy.

Great Heroism Displayed.
"The lifeboats were manned in a jiffy. There was no hesitation, no wrangling. Every man realized the work before him and knew that the incentive was the saving of human lives. Why didn't the Krouland men do the same?"

"To men the Krouland crew displayed the greatest heroism. They went into that raging sea in those little lifeboats as eagerly as an Atlanta boy will embark in a flat-bottomed boat at Piedmont Lake, and when the stricken passengers were brought on board the Krouland the sailors were willing to share their all to help the sufferers.

"The Krouland was standing by as we reached the scene. Her lights were playing on the Volturno, but we all noticed that she hadn't lowered a single lifeboat. When we were within two miles of the burning ship our first boats were put over and we passengers wondered why the Krouland wasn't doing the same thing. No boat ever left the Krouland. It was a puzzle to us. The Krouland's sailors were not afraid of the sea, so why were the Krouland's?"

Prizes Volturno Officer.
"But if there was any lack of courage aboard the Krouland, there was plenty of courage at the Volturno. Every survivor that came aboard the Krouland was in good luck. Not one of the Krouland's was lost. He was the real hero.

"According to the story of the survivors, it was 7 o'clock, Thursday morning when the fire alarm rang aboard. In a second the flames were shooting up 40 feet into the air of the ship, and the entire watch below must have been instantly burned to death.

"What started the blaze no one will ever know. It couldn't have resulted from a cigarette, as all the sailors declare that the hatchets were battered down.

"Captain Inch at once gave orders to man the lifeboats, despite the gale and the high sea. Two boats were made ready in command of the first and fourth officers, and a large number of passengers, mostly women, were directed to get into them.

Lifeboats Smashed.
The boats were then lowered away, but the instant they struck the water they were smashed against the ship's side. Half a dozen boats in all were lowered and smashed in the same way. Inch saw that it was useless to attempt to put more boats out.

"He then ordered all passengers to be scattered aft and the entire crew forward to fight the fire. Captain Inch himself led the fire-fighters, and one shot of flame caught him and nearly blinded him.

"The passengers told me that in the after part of the ship some were screaming, some were praying and some were singing hymns, while others were shouting and shouting would rescue them that the fire would hold out. There was no one on the part of the crew. The Krouland was perfect. Every sailor knew the ship was doomed, yet they believed nothing.

Pistol Incident Denied.
"The officers stayed at their posts and did not leave their posts at all. I broke when they could not possibly do any more. The discipline was shown by the fact that the Krouland's passengers readily obeyed the orders.

WILL RUN FOR SHERIFF.
WAYCROSS, Oct. 17.—County Commissioner J. J. Murray, who is serving his third year and who has two years more to serve, will in November tender his resignation to take effect January 1. He will run for sheriff.

Sizes 6 to 14 years, with a sprinkling of what is known as intermediate size—just larger than a fourteen, but smaller than and fashioned differently from the junior size, 15 years.

Those worthy of particular note are of serge, challis, ratine and velvet. Colors and styles for "best" wear.

Colors and styles for school wear.

All novel and attractive. One will have a wide belt placed very low, perhaps the belt a Roman striped or plaid silk or a fur-edged band of self-material, another will have the waist of side buttoning effect, another will have a laced up waist, some of the more "dressy" ones will have Irish crochet collars and others dainty Swiss embroidery collars.

Plain shades of navy, black, dark red, black-and-white checked serges, two-toned ratines.

We believe those the smartest dresses for children Atlanta has seen—and so will you.

There are in sizes one year to six years.

And there are many more styles than sizes.

Velvets, mixtures, zibelines, boucle, Ural lamb (a cloth that looks like fur), broadcloth, corduroy.

Some of these are just coats—very plain and very neatly and trimly finished—and others are dressed up a bit with fur collars, with belts and novel buttons and with Irish croquet collars.

The price range gives you an idea of the variety, $3.50, $5.00, $6.75 and up to $20.00.

She must play, so let her be comfortable and free and easy in mind and body.

With a "gym" suit on the need have no fear of tearing her clothes. These are of medium navy and black—one-piece suits of bloomers and blouse. They are $3.50.

Many middies—white galatea with trimmings of red, cadet and navy, at $1.00 and $1.50.

Khaki color and navy middies of sateen and galatea in smaller sizes at 50c; larger at 60c to $1.50.

You will make no mistake in selecting any one of the following gloves — they are what we mean when we claim to be the best gloves at their respective prices.

The Squire at $1.00, the finest glove we have ever seen for $1.00, 2-clasp, Paris-point stitching.

A P K Sewn Glove at $1.00, 1-clasp, black, with white stitching and white with black stitching.

A heavy Street Glove at $1.25, 1-clasp, in best gloves at their respective prices.

The Trefousse at $2.00, 2-clasp, apron, "live" kid skin, colors and black with white stitching.

The Trefousse P K Kid at $2.00, 2-clasp, apron, prune and black, with white stitching, the white with black stitching.

A Mocha Glove at $125, very serviceable, full of warmth. 1-elastic, gray and tan.

The Navarre at $150, a soft, genuine kid skin 2-elastic glove, black, white and colors.

The Trefousse P K Suede Glove at $200, 2-elastic, black, tan and gray.

The Valance—A Trefousse Glove, 2 pearl clasps, P K sewn, of supple kid, black, white, tan, gray, with heavy embroidery and pipings of self and tan. One of the smartest gloves of the season. $200.

The Trefousse P K Kid at $200, $350, black with broad white or self-stitching and the white with black stitching.

Neckfixings--The Final Touch

Everything is stamped with newness and daintiness.

These are but a few—

Medic Styles, shirts, collars, ruffs, of net and chiffon and embroidery. The price range tells the variety. 50c to $5.00.

Maline and Net, ruffs, collars, ruffs, cuffs: black, white, and black and white; very chic. $2.50 to $5.50

Collar and Cuff Sets in infinite variety—be embroidered, be fringed, lace, and net and lace combinations: fluffy, airy—daintiness itself. 50c to $5.00.

Paris Collars, be of all shades of colors, such as Paris alone would dare—but a world of women will wear: $1.50 to $5.00.

Net Guimpe that relieve a dress of its ornaments: very stylish, too. White, cream, cerise and black: some touched with hand-embroidery. 25c to $3.00.

New Windsor Ties; decidedly new in that they are of such soft fabrics: crepe de chimes and satins, and in shades that mark the style tendencies in suit and millinery this season.

And the many kinds of ruffings, net, lace, ribbons and crepe—chiffon. You will decide this to be a big new season for yourself!

SIDELIGHTS on GEORGIA POLITICS

by JAMES B. NEVIN

James D. Price, Commissioner of Agriculture, has been spending much time as he could squeeze out of the demands of his department of late to attending to a few State fair around and about Georgia.

Mr. Price is one of our hardest workers that ever occupied the office of Commissioner of Agriculture, and does not have nearly as much time as he would like to visit the various rural and agricultural sections of the State, but wherever he is, he is able to get to a county fair he gets there, somehow.

Tuesday Mr. Price spent in Carroll County, attending the Carroll County fair, and talks most enthusiastically about it.

"I am something of a 'crank' person about these things," said Mr. Price, "but I believe there is nothing more stimulating to the farmers than county fairs. They engender a healthy and helpful rivalry among planters and live stock growers, and more than that, they bring about love and understanding between the people of the State."

Mr. Price is a man of many talents, and his work in the State is a credit to him. He is a man of many talents, and his work in the State is a credit to him.

To-morrow---Suits for Women, at $15 to $25

When a woman wishes to express her own estimate of her value, she instinctively turns to clothes. They may not be her only form of expression, but they are an uncomprehendingly important one, and one which everybody can recognize at a glance. And the better she understands the art of dress the more she appreciates the necessity of the plain suit in her wardrobe, and the more exacting she is likely to be as to its cut and detail work.

Here Are Suits of Wonderful Value to Show You Saturday at $15 to $25

Suits that are quiet and simple; the styles—a score of them, are chosen with a view to suitability, and are not extreme, but show clever style touches. For instance:

At $15---Junior Misses' Suits

Stylish two-piece (Coat Suits of serge or diagonals in navy, Copenhagen, or black; some are plain tailored, others have trimming of braid and buttons.

At $15---Suits for Women

Practical Suits of serge; long cutaway coat, plain-tailored, lined with Skinner's satin, in drab, navy or black.

At $20

Women's Suits that are stylish yet ready for hard wear; of wide-wale diagonal suit; plain-tailored coat, well cut, well lined; ball button trimmed draped skirt; blue or black.

Also at $20

Decidedly pleasing Suits of good serge in navy or black; cutaway coat, with draped skirt. Others of mannish styling, invisible stripe mixture; long cutaway coat; draped skirt.

At $25

Beautiful Suits of wide-wale diagonal; brown-and-black or blue-and-black; cutaway coat, velvet collar, belted back, lined with Skinner's satin; draped skirt.

At $25

Suits of mannish serge; smart, plain-tailored 3-button cutaway coat; draped skirt; with slight slash; the colors are: Copenhagen, navy and black.

The New Neckwear Is Delightful

Neckwear has never in any previous season played a more important part than now. There are scores of dainty and inexpensive accessories that almost transform a gown and add a pleasing and becoming touch to any woman's toilet.

At 50c for Instance:

There are beautiful Collars of various styles, including the medici, coat sets, fichus, bows and ties.

Plaitings of lace, net and crepe de chine, white and cream, from 3-4 to 4-1/2 inches wide; 25c to $1.50 yard—according to the width.

Net Blouses in great variety, to be worn with coat suits; prices range from $1.25 to $6.00.

Fichus, of net, lace or crepe de chine, at $1.25 to $6.00.

The Downstairs Section

All-Wool Tailored Suits at $12.50. The Best Value We've Offered at This Price

Suits of the very best style, long cutaway coat, perfectly plain tailored; well lined, slightly draped skirt; the material is all-wool diagonal serge. A pretty navy. Wonderful value at the price.

Women's Serge Dresses at $4.75

Decidedly smart Coat Dresses, coat of black or blue serge with skirt of black-and-white shapard checks.

$2.50 Silk Petticoats at $1.98

Silk Petticoats in plenty at $1.98, worth $2.50. All the colors to match or contrast prettily with the new suit or dress. They are of soft, clinging meshline with prettily fashioned flounces. You will be delighted to find such a Petticoat at $1.98.

Girls' $1.50 and $1.75 All-Wool Sweaters at $1.00

Girls' all-wool white Sweaters, worth $1.50 and $1.75, at $1.00. They are coat style, with pockets; sizes up to 12 years.

Children's Good Muslin Night Gowns at 35c

Well-made Gowns of muslin, high neck, long sleeves; sizes 2 to 10 years. Special for this sale at 35c each.

A Sale of Corsets at 50c Each

Stylish models, low bust, very long hips; four hose supporters attached; sizes 18 to 26 only. Priced for Saturday at 50c.

$1.00 Blankets at 79c Pair

Heavy cotton Blankets, double-bed size; gray or tan, with pink blue borders. They are fresh and clean—priced here every day at $1.00—you must buy them Saturday at 79c pair.

The Warner side-gore, a long, subtly-shaped piece up the side, and fully adjusted front-lying on the lower skirt, are two of the particular merits of this handsome model.

Smart Dresses---Little Priced

Time was when the serge frock had things all its own way, but now serge divides honors with wool crepe, Bedford cord and sponge.

And the colors include much pretty hue as the new blues, mahogany, terra cotta, greens and brown—some rich, beautiful plaids in composite dresses. These ask your attention Saturday:

Smart Russian Dresses, with blouse and poplin of beautiful wool plaid, in rich colors, and skirt of plain serge, blue or brown; several pretty styles to select from, at $15 and $20.

Distinctive Dresses of wool sponge—brown or blue, with novelty collar of embroidered moire silk; black satin girdle. Priced at $12.75.

Stylish Dresses of matelasse in navy, Copenhagen, taupe or black; embroidered silk collar; $20.

Pretty serge Dresses for as little as $7.50—navy, terra cotta, mahogany and black, attractively fashioned and trimmed.

Wonderful Charmeuse or Crepe de Chine dresses, navy and black; prettily trimmed with lace; priced for Saturday at $10 each.

Witchcraft Persecution in the 20th Century—The Perjured “Blood Accusation” in Russia

A detailed black and white illustration by Winsor McCay, showing a bustling garment factory. The upper portion of the image features several women in long dresses working at long tables, possibly sewing or finishing garments. The lower portion shows a group of people, including children, gathered around a large, dark, textured object, possibly a large piece of fabric or a machine. The scene is set in a room with large windows in the background. The signature 'WINSOR McCAY' is visible in the bottom right corner.

So long as civilization permits factories to grind childhood into dollars, so long shall the young savage have a happier lot than the "civilized" child born to be a mill "hand."

Wheat—No. 2 red	85 91
Cor'n—No. 2	79
Oats—No. 2	33 34 1/2

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Instead of keeping its upward course to close the wheat market, after reaching 81 1/2 for December and 84 1/2 for May, reacted and advanced to 82 1/2 and 84 1/2, respectively. Net losses for the day amounted to 1/2 cent. The corn market closed much better with sales of 325,000 bushels.

Primary receipts were only a little over half those of a year ago. Losses were estimated at 1/2 to 3/4 cent. Corn and oats were off 1/4 to 1/2.

GRAIN NOTES

Bartlett, Frazier Co. says: "Wholesale market is like a horse race today. For some time there has been no demand for new buyers to take hold.

"The pressure of supplies on the spot at Liverpool was the chief cause of the decline.

"Oats—Market shows no sign of rallying as yet.

"The Corn—Cash demand continues slight with packers fair sellers."

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The indications that the weather will be substantially the same as it has been recently, with probably rain during the next 36 hours, over practically the entire section of the Mississippi River.

"The temperature will be lower in the night and Saturday in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the Gulf States and regions in the lower lake and regions. Moderate temperatures will continue in the eastern and middle sections."
